Under a free enterprise system, the law is a powerful force for good. And the men and women of the legal profession — in Florida and throughout the country — have a grave responsibility to use it wisely and well.

Electric power, too, is a force for good where freedom flourishes . . . and Florida Power & Light Company recognizes its responsibility to the people of Florida. Today, at a rate unprecedented in our history, we are expanding our capacities in a continuing effort to build Florida for the future.
