EDITOR-IN-CHIEF COMMENT

Thank you to the University of Miami Race & Social Justice Law Review Executive Board for all of their efforts during the Spring 2022 semester, as well as all of the Review's members and junior editors for their work and dedication to the law review. The Executive Board, members, and junior editors have invested in expanding scholarly writing on transformative topics in race and social justice. With their effort and support, this Review continues to promote progress in the name of equity, equality, and justice. The publishing of this issue is a tremendous accomplishment and something for which I will be forever grateful to each person who has contributed to this success. It is with great pride that we publish Volume 12, Issue 2.

STATEMENT OF EDITORIAL POLICY

The University of Miami Race & Social Justice Law Review is an academic journal that publishes submitted articles and student notes and comments that address the legal, social, economic, and psychological issues that affect communities of color.
