THE UNIVERSITY OF MIAMI SCHOOL OF LAW

The University of Miami School of Law is approved by the American Bar Association and is a member in good standing of the Association of American Law Schools. The law school emphasizes general theory, and graduates from the school are prepared to take the bar examination of any jurisdiction in the United States.

The graduate program in law provides an opportunity for advanced study and creative research, as well as specialization, to enhance a career in research, teaching, government, or private practice. Graduate programs lead to the degree of Master of Laws in Inter-American Law, International Law, Taxation, Estate Planning, Ocean and Coastal Law, or Real Property, Land Development, and Finance Law. Graduates from foreign law schools where the curriculum is not based on the common law may be admitted as candidates for the M.C.L.

The University of Miami School of Law has one of the finest law libraries in the country. The library's collection of more than 300,000 volumes contains the statutes, decisions, and digests of all the states and the federal government, as well as an excellent collection of British Commonwealth materials and Anglo-American periodicals and texts. The foreign section of approximately 50,000 volumes emphasizes Latin American law.
