INTER-AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION

JOHN O. DAHLGREN
Secretary General
Inter-American Bar Association

The officers and other key personnel of the Inter-American Bar Association have spent the past few months preparing for the XVII Conference scheduled for Quito, Ecuador, April 24-29, 1972.

The topics to be discussed at the Conference appeared in the last issue of the Lawyer, and there is every indication that the subjects will be exhaustively covered by the participants under the able direction of all Committee chairmen.

The Conference, which is expected to draw a large turnout from all the countries in the Hemisphere, will be covered in depth in the next issue of the Lawyer.
