The University of Miami Business Law Review, (the "Review") publishes submitted articles and student notes and comments on legal issues arising in any field related to business. These areas include, but are not limited to, corporation, tax, antitrust, banking, securities regulation, bankruptcy, environmental, sports, insurance, and labor law. Authors seeking publication can submit their articles electronically in Microsoft Word format to the following email address: umblr@students.law.miami.edu or through the ExpressO Submission Service. Alternatively, authors may submit printed manuscripts to the address listed herein. Footnotes should conform to the 19th edition of The Bluebook: A Uniform System to Citation, published by the Harvard Law Review Association.

The Review, formerly the Business Law Journal, (ISSN 1047-2819) is published two times annually by the students of the University of Miami School of Law. Available on LEXIS-NEXIS and WESTLAW databases.

Subscription Price is $40 per annum. Subscriptions are automatically renewed in the Fall, unless prior notice of cancellation is received.

The Review selects members on the basis of academic performance and a student writing competition. The Review does not discriminate on the basis of age, color, handicap, national origin, race, religion, sex, or sexual orientation.
