Editor-in-Chief Comment

It has been an honor to be the Editor-in-Chief of this journal, which was born out of the passion of the students and faculty of this great campus. With the help and support of the law school, members of the armed services, and practitioners this law review has really begun to shine. May we continue to forge ahead, generating thoughtful and timely scholarly dialogue and debate on the critical challenges to our national security and the merits of armed conflict.

Thank you to the incoming Executive Board, Members, and Candidates for all of the work you have contributed to making this edition possible.
