THE UNIVERSITY OF MIAMI SCHOOL OF LAW

The University of Miami School of Law is approved by the American Bar Association and is a member in good standing of the Association of American Law Schools. The Law School emphasizes general theory, and graduates from the school are prepared to take the bar examination in any jurisdiction in the United States.

The graduate law programs provide opportunities for advanced study and creative research, as well as specialization, to enhance a career in research, teaching, government, or private practice. The graduate programs lead to the degree of Master of Laws in Inter-American Law, International Law, Ocean and Coastal Law, Taxation, Estate Planning, Real Property Development, and Comparative Law (for foreign attorneys only). Graduates of foreign law schools where the curriculum is not based on the common law may be admitted as candidates for the Master of Laws (L.L.M.) in Comparative Law, Inter-American Law, International Law, and Ocean and Coastal Law.

The University of Miami School of Law has one of the finest law libraries in the country. The Law Library houses over 600,000 volumes and equivalents, with special collections in the areas of taxation, estate planning, labor theory, ocean law, and foreign and international law, with an emphasis on Latin America and the Caribbean.
