STATEMENT OF EDITORIAL POLICY

The University of Miami Business Law Review, formerly the Business Law Journal (ISSN: 1047-2819), is an academic journal that publishes submitted articles and student notes and comments on legal issues arising in any field related to business. These areas include, but are not limited to, corporation, tax, antitrust, banking, securities regulation, bankruptcy, environmental, sports, entertainment, health, insurance, and labor law. The University of Miami Business Law Review is currently available on LEXIS and Westlaw, as well as on our organizational website at law.miami.edu/umblr.

SUBSCRIPTIONS: The University of Miami Business Law Review strives to produce two issues per year. For information on receiving a hard copy of the University of Miami Business Law Review through our Print-on-Demand service, please visit our organizational website at law.miami.edu/umblr. If you or your institution is interested in receiving news on our forthcoming digital issues, please email the Managing Editor at umblr@law.miami.edu with your contact information, your organizational name, and a receiving email address.

SUBMISSIONS: The University of Miami Business Law Review invites the submission of unsolicited manuscripts and comments. All manuscripts should conform to the style set forth in The Bluebook: A Uniform System of Citation (19th ed. 2010). Authors seeking publication in the University of Miami Business Law Review should submit manuscripts in Microsoft Word format electronically to umblr@law.miami.edu or as otherwise provided at http://business-law-review.law.miami.edu/submissions/.

MEMBERSHIP: The University of Miami Business Law Review selects members on the basis of academic performance and a student writing competition. The Editorial Board does not discriminate on the basis of age, color, handicap, national origin, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender, or gender identity.
